Thank you for your comments regarding dressing up for World Book Day AND History Week. As per the e mail that went out yesterday we will dress up on FRIDAY 11TH MARCH; choose a historical character or a fictional character from history (eg Asterix, Railway Children etc). We are looking forward to the enrichment activities planned for History Week; any parent or grandparent who would like to come in and talk to their class about a particular aspect of history would be most welcome. Speak to your class teacher before or after school.
